Donna Peoples McClendon

1935 - 2012

Donna Peoples McClendon passed away on Saturday, April 14, 2012.

Donna was born November 21, 1935, to Texas Ranger Captain Clint and Mrs. Donna Peoples in Conroe, Texas. While she was young the family moved to Austin.

Donna attended and graduated from the Austin School System. She attended the University of Texas where she met her future husband, Sam McClendon. Donna and Sam married in 1958. They moved to Waco in 1959, and joined Columbus Avenue Baptist Church.

Soon afterward, Donna completed her college education by attending Baylor University, receiving a degree in elementary education. She taught second grade in the Midway School System for 28 years, retiring in 1996. She was greatly loved and admired by her students.

Donna and Sam traveled extensively all over the world and for the last ten years spent many months at their condominium in Red River, New Mexico.

The Board and Staff of the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum extend their condolences to husband Sam and their family.
