Frank Hamer Statue

Between 1908 and 1911, Frank Hamer served as the marshal of Navasota. The city "had a reputation for wildness, and this imposing young peace officer brought law and order to the community," said Navasota Mayor Bert Miller.

The statue was unveiled on March 2nd during the Texas Birthday Bash.

Mayor Miller continued, "We were very pleased with the turnout to the event, which included current and retired Rangers, members of Frank Hamer's family and statue sculptor Russell Cushman. Ranger Hamer stands tall guarding our great city hall."

New Products from Grandmas Unplugged

The Texas Ranger Hall of Fame is pleased to announce a new licensee, Grandmas Unplugged. They make special occasion greeting cards with humorous sayings and historic photos.

Kari Zimmerman and Debra Kirkham of Hamilton, Texas, approached the Texas Ranger Museum with the idea of creating the line featuring the Museum's photographic archives. The cards are available for purchase in the museum gift shop, on their website and at other retailers.

The Texas Ranger Hall of Fame cards are sold individually and in sets of four. The backs of the cards feature historic information about the Rangers. A portion of the proceeds of the sale of the cards support the educational programs at the museum.

Recap: Spring Break Round Up

On Saturday, March 16th the museum hosted its annual Spring Break Round Up. The come and go event featured activities and programs for children and adults, including a recreation of a Texas Ranger camp, a chuck wagon cooking demonstration with biscuits for visitors to sample, and presentations on the current duties of Texas Rangers and Civil War music. We appreciate the support from the community who attended the event and the participants: Texas Top Guns, Texas Ranger Captain Frank Malinak, Joe Walker and Junior League of Waco.
