

“Story Time with Audrey” TEKS Guide

The Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum’s “Story Time with Audrey” series are videos with a museum staff member reading a children’s story book to the camera. This guide includes the books that fall under different Social Studies TEKS, organized by grade level (Kindergarten through Third Grade).

Every book in the series can fulfill different Language Arts TEKS if there is a facilitated discussion after the video. Discussion question suggestions can be found at the end of this document.

You can access all “Story Time with Audrey” videos via TRHFM’s website by clicking here. On the website, the videos are divided by what year they were filmed. Each book has a bolded year next to it and you can go to that year’s page to find it.
